According to the American Pet Products Manufacturers Association*, in 2006 Americans spent $38.5 billion* on their pets. In addition, more and more hotels, among them the Four Seasons and Ritz-Carlton, and even resorts* have welcomed four-legged guests in recent years. The services these pet-friendly places offer pets include swimming classes, massage treatments*, and even pet psychologists*. In some hotels, dogs will receive upon arrival* a basket of toys and a bed mat of 100 percent Egyptian cotton*, embroidered* with the dog's name.

For many resorts and hotels, the comfort of the pets is just as important as that of the human guests. After all, hotel managers know that the trend is now for pet owners to bring their pets along when they go on vacation. Though their owners are happy to travel with them, how about the pets themselves? A pet psychic*, who is able to know how an animal feels by looking at it or at its photo, said most of the animals told her they wanted to go with their owners.

*American Pet Products Manufacturers Association 美國寵物用品生產商協會

*billion 十億 *resort 度假勝地 *massage treatment 按摩療程

*psychologist 心理學家 *upon arrival 抵達時 *Egyptian cotton 埃及棉

*embroider 繡上 *psychic 靈媒
