Anne Frank

- Born in Germany on 12th June 1929
- Parents: Otto and Edith
- Sister: Margot
- Lively and outgoing, had lots of friends.
- Enjoyed writing, going for family trips out to the seaside, riding her bike.

The Second World War
 In 1933, Adolf Hitler became the leader of Germany. Anne was Jewish but Hitler despised Jews. He blamed them for Germany's problems. Otto Frank moved to Amsterdam in the Netherlands when Anne was four years old. The Second World War began in 1939. The Nazis invaded the Netherlands in 1940. Life became hard for Jewish people. They were forced to wear a yellow star.

Anne received a red diary for her thirteenth birthday. Anne named her diary 'Kitty'; she began to write in it every day. Anne loved to write.

Going Into Hiding
 Otto Frank had a secret annexe behind his office. Anne and her family hid away from the Nazis for two years. Anne wrote in 'Kitty' every day.

Captured
 Towards the end of the war, Anne and her family were betrayed and the Nazis found their hiding place. The family was split up and sent to a concentration camp. Anne died just a month before the end of the war from a disease called typhus. She was fifteen years old when she died. Only Otto Frank survived. He decided to publish Anne's diary.

Anne Frank

Anne Frank had dreams of becoming a writer. Her diary shows her courage and hopefulness.

"Think of all the beauty still left around you and be happy."
 Anne Frank

"No one has ever become poorer by giving."
