三、閱讀測驗 共出5題,每題2分,共10分

There was once a rich farmer with two sons. One day, the younger son asked his father for a large amount of money. After the father gave him the money, the younger son went away to a distant country. The son spent all of his money partying and buying expensive things. When he had spent all of his money, there was a famine in the land. The younger son had to find work feeding pigs in order to make enough money to stay alive. He was often very hungry and wanted to eat the same food that he fed the pigs with. One day, when he was very sad, he suddenly remembered his father. He decided to go home, apologize to his father for being a bad son, and ask his father to take him back into his home.

Meanwhile, at home, his father had been waiting for his son to come back. Every day, he would go out and look at the road to see if his son was returning. One day, as he was looking at the road, he saw a person far away walking towards the house. When he saw that the person was his son, he was overjoyed and ran to greet him. The son told his father that he was sorry for all the things he did to hurt his father and make him sad. The father forgave his son and threw a big feast to welcome his son home again.

When his elder brother complained to his father about being too nice to the homecoming son, his father replied, "Let's celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found."
